President Obama's Summer Service Initiative

On June 17, President Obama officially announced his summer service initiative, United We Serve, encouraging Americans to create meaningful change in their communities by engaging in service. Sandra Gibson, President and CEO, Arts Presenters, led a member-only conference call to discuss how the arts community can get involved with President Obama's summer service initiative on June 11.

As we continue our commitment to helping our members through these difficult economic times, we want to make sure this extraordinary opportunity to both serve communities while creating innovative ways to sustain arts and cultural organizations is made available to each of you. If you are interested in participating in our volunteer survey, please contact Leah Frelinghuysen, Director of Public Affairs at lfrelinghuysen@artspresenters.org

We are proud to be working closely with the Corporation for National & Community Service and the White House on this important call to action.
